GlobeTax Exhibits at the MFA's Annual Forum in Chicago

GlobeTax sponsored a booth at last week's Managed Funds Association's (MFA) Annual Forum in Chicago. The MFA is a non-profit organization which operates out of Washington, DC and promotes a beneficial regulatory environment, improved public relations, growth of the managed funds industry, and increased member and investor knowledge. Len A. Lipton, GlobeTax's Vice President of Marketing commented, "I attend many industry conferences and I found the MFA's Annual Forum to be one of the most valuable that I've been to. Between the distinguished roster of speakers, the broad attendance by decision makers and opportunities for networking it was really a great event. I think Mr. (Jack) Gaine, President of the MFA, and his team did a terrific job putting the whole program together."

This year's program included such distinguished speakers as; former US Senator Jon Breaux-(LA), Mr. Phillip Duff, CEO of Front Point partners, Ms. Sharon Brown-Hruska, Acting Chairperson of the Commodities and Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) and Mr. Henry Swieca, co-founder, co-CEO of Highbridge Capital Management amongst many others. The Forum was attended by over 500 industry professionals and was held at the Fairmont Hotel in Chicago, Illinois from June 6-8, 2005.
