

Globe Tax Services Incorporated

Press Release

London

April 28, 2004

- McGill of Globe Tax Services, Inc. serves as expert for pension fund Forum

Ross McGill, Director of Marketing at Globe Tax Services, Inc. will attend a Global Custody Forum to be held in London, England on May 6th, 2004, as a panelist. Mr. McGill will serve as an expert on the panel and will be on hand to answer questions from up to 250 delegates of the custody and pension fund management industry. The discussion will focus on the development of the European pension fund market and how multi-national pension funds are addressing various cross-border issues. In particular, the importance of foreign tax reclamation for pension funds and hedge funds, as it can severely impact performance. For more information on this event please visit the conference website: <http://www.euromoneyconferences.com>

Globe Tax Services, Inc. headquartered in New York, provides outsourcing of foreign withholding tax reclaims on behalf of fund managers, custodians and investors.