In addition, according to the new wording of the law governing Spanish NRIT (in force since January 1, 2007), the first EUR 1,500 of any dividends received annually from Spanish entities (such as those distributed by BBVA) by individual holders without permanent establishment in Spain, who are resident in a country that has an effective “exchange of fiscal information” agreement with Spain (such as the United States) will be exempt from Spanish taxation. In practice, on any dividend payment date, U.S. residents will be subject to a withholding of 21% of the gross amount of dividends. BBVA Institutional Custody fee to process reclaims on the exemption of the first EUR 1,500 of dividends annually received by individuals is $0.003 per share.

Recovering these funds may impact an investor’s Domestic (US or Other Treaty Countries) Income Tax returns for the year(s) in which the dividends were paid. It is recommended that each investor discuss the impact this type of reclaim may have on their personal income taxes with a qualified Tax Advisor. BNY Mellon, BBVA, and GlobeTax do not provide tax advice.
