

Endowments and Foundations

GLOBETAX

Are you meeting your fiduciary duty and maximizing fund performance?

In the current investment climate, every basis point counts, and there is growing pressure on fiduciaries and asset managers to maximize fund performance.

Endowments and foundations are often tax exempt in their country of residence. However, because of the way banks and brokers hold securities, it is often not clear to a foreign government or to a paying agent precisely who owns the assets and, subsequently, what the tax status should be.

In many markets the treaty rate for endowments and foundations is 0%. As the beneficial owner of the securities, funds are entitled to reclaim the difference between the statutory rate and the treaty rate.
